WE ARE INDIVIDUALS COLLECTIVELY SHAPING THE FUTURE OF MOTORCYCLING

We represent the Harley-Davidson® brand in a culture of diversity and continuous improvement doing what the Bar and Shield has been doing since 1903 – fulfilling dreams of personal freedom. And, we’re continuing our legacy by building the next generation of riders around the world.

We are paving more roads to Harley-Davidson by developing exhilarating new products, including our first complete line of electric motorcycles, creating broader access to our iconic brand, and building a stronger dealer network. And, we can’t do it without the best and brightest talent.

We’re adding talent and building new capabilities, including our new EV Systems Research & Development facility, slated to open later this year in Silicon Valley in California – who can blow the doors wide open with innovation and creativity while staying true to the Harley-Davidson brand and legacy.

This isn’t just any company. And yours isn’t just any career. It’s part of your story. Write it with us and make it legendary.
